Hall of Languages

QUICK FACTS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1870

Location: Main campus is in Syracuse, N.Y. (a five-hour drive from New York City), with U.S. centers in New York City, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C., and eight centers around the world.

Undergraduate Enrollment: 14,000+ students (including 1,500+ transfer students) representing 130+ countries.

Majors: 200+ majors/100+ minors within nine undergraduate colleges.

Liberal Arts: The College of Arts and Sciences is the heart of the Syracuse University liberal arts experience—and home to one-third of the undergraduate student body.

Student-to-Faculty Ratio: 16:1

Average Class Size: 25

Current Alumni: Nearly a quarter of a million alumni representing 162 countries and territories.

Research: $67 million was awarded in 2014 for research, teaching, and other sponsored programs.

Study Abroad: Program consistently ranked among the top 25 in the U.S. Almost half of Syracuse students study abroad at least once.

Career Placement: 94% of 2014 seniors were employed, interning, or attending graduate school directly after graduation.

#58 National University
2015 U.S. News & World Report

#4 Best School for Journalism
2014 NewsPro Magazine

#5 Architecture
2014 DesignIntelligence

#8 Marketing
2015 USA Today/College Factual

#8 Social Work
2015 USA Today/College Factual

#9 Entrepreneurship
2015 U.S. News & World Report

#9 Environmental and Interior Design
2015 DesignIntelligence

#11 Film
2014 The Hollywood Reporter

#12 Best School for Accounting Professionals
2014 LinkedIn University Rankings

#13 Best School for Designers
2014 LinkedIn University Rankings

#47 Best Value School
2015 U.S. News & World Report

The University's Maxwell School is recognized by U.S. News & World Report as the top graduate school of public affairs—and is home to undergraduate social sciences.

The University's iSchool is recognized by U.S. News & World Report as having the top graduate program in information systems—and offers popular undergraduate courses that apply to virtually any career.

For a full list, visit admissions.syr.edu/quickfacts
WORLD-CLASS ACADEMICS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Only at Syracuse University
> NASA-quality flight simulator
> Student-run communications agencies, including TNH, Comm.UNITY, and Hill Communications
> $3.7 million student-managed Wall Street Orange Value Fund
> Entertainment industry courses at the University’s LA Center
> Collaboration with Equity actors at Syracuse Stage, a four-theater complex

Choice and Customization
Combine majors and minors in different colleges or, in some cases, pursue two major areas of concentration. A few examples to get you thinking:

Majors: Biology and Illustration
Career: Medical Illustrator

Majors: Electrical Engineering and Music
Career: Sound System Developer

Majors: Social Work, and Health and Physical Education
Career: After-School Program Director

Majors: Political Science, and Citizenship and Civic Engagement
Career: Prosecuting Attorney

Majors: Information Management and International Relations
Career: Security Engineering Officer

You’ll learn from scholars of distinction, industry leaders, and community members as you work to address real-world issues

Discuss your ideas with visiting experts, such as Van Jones, president and co-founder of Rebuild the Dream and co-host of CNN’s Crossfire reboot.

Learn fiction writing from George Saunders, English professor, winner of the PEN/Malamud Award, and one of Time magazine’s 100 Most Influential People of 2012.

“The best book you’ll read this year.”
—The New York Times Magazine
Conduct groundbreaking research to treat diabetes with the oral delivery of insulin alongside chemistry professor Robert Doyle.

Monitor the sounds of endangered North Atlantic right whales with biology professor Susan Parks.

Learn investment strategy, entrepreneurial tactics, and life lessons from Martin J. Whitman, founder of the Third Avenue Value Fund and namesake of the University’s Whitman School of Management.

Intern at the European Parliament in Strasbourg, France—or one of many other high-profile organizations and businesses around the world.
“I’m currently a double major in international relations and sociology. Although I’m not certain what career path I would like to follow, diplomacy is high on my list.”

—Ingmar Steeman, junior
Singapore
International Relations and Sociology

“I’m currently a double major in international relations and sociology. Although I’m not certain what career path I would like to follow, diplomacy is high on my list.”

—Igmar Steeman, junior
Singapore
International Relations and Sociology

“After thoughtful research and consideration, Syracuse University was the ideal place for me because of its highly ranked School of Information Studies (ISchool). The experiences and knowledge I have acquired will lead me into the IT industry.”

—Eleni Dimitriou ’15
Cyprus
Information Management and Technology

“Attending one of the best architecture schools in the nation and being able to visit architecture firms while abroad helped me focus and work on what I wanted to do later in life. Being able to join Syracuse University’s Society of Arab World Affiliates (SAWA) helped me connect with friends from my region.”

—Abdulrazzak Alanjari ’15
Kuwait
Architecture

“I learned way beyond my major. During my first year, I took a writing class, which required me to think critically and take advantage of the Writing Center. Since then, I’ve taken Italian, economics, and sociology courses.”

—Mary-Johanna Adjetey ’15
Ghana
Mathematics and Art

“I’m currently a double major in international relations and sociology. Although I’m not certain what career path I would like to follow, diplomacy is high on my list.”

—Ingmar Steeman, junior
Singapore
International Relations and Sociology
“From networking with professionals through the iSchool Career Fair to taking rigorous courses, I find that I am maturing not only as a student but also as a man. I am blessed to be part of a community that is undoubtedly preparing me for the future.”

—Kwabena Tettey, junior
South Africa
Information Management and Technology

“At Syracuse University, if you see a need for an organization, you can begin one. I helped start Ottonomous Productions last year. It’s a short-film organization run by students so that Television, Radio and Film majors can see scripts brought to life.”

—Diane Danneels ’15
Switzerland
Television, Radio and Film

“The Slutzker Center for International Services has many events to introduce different cultures and promote cultural exchange. I worked there as a mentor, and I became a more open-minded person through this experience.”

—Ruitong Flora Zhou ’15
China
Public Relations and International Relations

“Syracuse taught me how corporate America works from the inside out and gave me the tools to excel at any job in the financial services industry. As I start my journey in banking, I know that my investment and corporate finance classes will help me stand out among my peers.”

—Ricardo Monserratt ’14
Venezuela
Finance and Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises

“At Syracuse University, if you see a need for an organization, you can begin one. I helped start Ottonomous Productions last year. It’s a short-film organization run by students so that Television, Radio and Film majors can see scripts brought to life.”

—Diane Danneels ’15
Switzerland
Television, Radio and Film

“From networking with professionals through the iSchool Career Fair to taking rigorous courses, I find that I am maturing not only as a student but also as a man. I am blessed to be part of a community that is undoubtedly preparing me for the future.”

—Kwabena Tettey, junior
South Africa
Information Management and Technology

“At Syracuse University, if you see a need for an organization, you can begin one. I helped start Ottonomous Productions last year. It’s a short-film organization run by students so that Television, Radio and Film majors can see scripts brought to life.”

—Diane Danneels ’15
Switzerland
Television, Radio and Film

“Syracuse taught me how corporate America works from the inside out and gave me the tools to excel at any job in the financial services industry. As I start my journey in banking, I know that my investment and corporate finance classes will help me stand out among my peers.”

—Ricardo Monserratt ’14
Venezuela
Finance and Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises
MAJORS AND MINORS

MAJORS

Syracuse's nine undergraduate colleges offer you the flexibility to explore varied interests—and develop new ones.

School of Architecture
511 students

Architecture

The College of Arts and Sciences
4,834 students

African American Studies
Applied Mathematics
Art History
Biochemistry
Biological and Medical Physics (through Physics)
Biology
Biophysical Science
Biotechnology
Chemistry
Classical Civilization
Classics (Greek and Latin)
Communication Sciences and Disorders (Speech Pathology and Audiology)
Earth Sciences (Geology)
Energy and Its Impacts
English and Textual Studies
Environmental Sciences (through Biology or Geology)
Ethics
European Literature
Fine Arts
Forensic Science
French and Francophone Studies
German Language, Literature, and Culture
Greek (through Classics)
History of Architecture
Italian Language, Literature, and Culture
Latin (through Classics)
Linguistic Studies
Mathematics
Modern Foreign Languages
Modern Jewish Studies
Music History and Cultures
Neuroscience
Philosophy
Physics
Political Philosophy
Psychology
Religion
Religion and Society
Russian and Central European Studies
Russian Language, Literature, and Culture
Spanish Language, Literature, and Culture
Women's and Gender Studies
Writing and Rhetoric
Professional Advising Programs:
- Pre-dentistry
- Prelaw
- Premedicine
- Pre-veterinary Medicine

Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs

Anthropology
Citizenship and Civic Engagement
Economics
Geography
History
International Relations
Latino-Latin American Studies
Middle Eastern Studies
Policy Studies (Public Affairs)
Political Science
Sociology

Dual and Combined Enrollment:

- School of Education
- 508 students
  - Teacher Prep:
    - Inclusive Early Childhood Special Education
    - Inclusive Elementary and Special Education
    - Health and Physical Education
  - Non-Teacher Prep:
    - Health and Exercise Science (includes Pre-Physical Therapy and 3+3 DPT)
    - Selected Studies in Education

School of Education (iSchool)
622 students

Information Management and Technology
Systems and Information Science
(dual enrollment: College of Engineering and Computer Science)

Dual Enrollment:
- Martin J. Whitman School of Management
- S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications

College of Engineering and Computer Science
1,498 students

Aerospace Engineering
Bioengineering
Chemical Engineering
Civil Engineering
Computer Engineering
Computer Science
Electrical Engineering
Environmental Engineering
Mechanical Engineering
Systems and Information Science
(dual enrollment: School of Information Studies)

Combined Enrollment:
- The College of Arts and Sciences

David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics
1,291 students

Child and Family Studies
Food Studies
Nutrition Science
Nutrition and Dietetics
Public Health
Social Work
Sport Management

Martin J. Whitman School of Management
1,665 students

Accounting
Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises
Finance
Management
Marketing Management
Real Estate
Retail Management
Supply Chain Management

Dual Enrollment:
- School of Information Studies
- S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications
S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications
1,352 students
Advertising
Broadcast and Digital Journalism
Graphic Design
Magazine
Newspaper and Online Journalism
Photography
Public Relations
Television - Radio - Film

Dual Enrollment:
The College of Arts and Sciences
School of Information Studies
Martin J. Whitman School of Management

Department of Communication and Rhetorical Studies:
Communication and Rhetorical Studies

Department of Drama:
Acting
Drama - Theater Management (B.S.)
Musical Theater
Stage Management
Theater Design and Technology

Setnor School of Music:
Music
Music Composition
Music Industry
Performance (Organ, Percussion, Piano, Strings, Voice, Wind Instruments)
Recording and Allied Entertainment Industries (The Bandier Program)
Sound Recording Technology

Dual Enrollment:
School of Education (Music Education)

MINORS
Minors are an important part of your curriculum. Once enrolled, you may choose from the following options.

Accounting
Addiction Studies
Advocacy and Public Rhetoric
African American Studies
Animation
Anthropology
Applied Statistics
Arabic
Architecture
Art History
Art Photography
Asian/Asian American Studies
Biology
Ceramics
Chemistry
Child and Family Policy
Child and Family Studies
Chinese Studies
Classical Civilization
Classics
Cognitive Science
Communication and Rhetorical Studies
Communication Sciences and Disorders
Communications Photography
Computer Engineering
Computer Gaming
Computer Science
Dance (through Exercise Science)
Disability Studies
Drama
Earth Sciences
Economics
Education Studies
Electrical Engineering
Energy Systems
Engineering and Computer Science Management
English and Textual Studies
Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises
Environment and Society
Finance
Fine Arts
Food Studies
Forensic Science
French and Francophone Studies
Geography
Geology
German
Gerontology
Global Enterprise Technology
Global Political Economy
Global Security Studies
Health and Wellness
History
History of Architecture
Information Management and Technology
Information Technology, Design, and Startups
Interdisciplinary minors
International Business
Italian
Jazz Studies
Jewelry and Metalsmithing
Jewish Education
Jewish Studies
Latino/Latin American Studies
Leadership/Stewardship Communication
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender Studies (LGBT)
Linguistic Studies
Logic
Management Studies
Marketing
Mathematics
Medical Anthropology
Medieval and Renaissance Studies
Middle Eastern Studies
Mindfulness and Contemplative Studies
Music History and Cultures
Music Industry
Music Performance
Native American Studies
Nutrition
Nutrition Science
Painting
Philosophy
Physical Computing
Physical Education (Coaching)
Physics
Policy Studies
Political Science
Private Music Study
Psychology
Public Communications Studies
Public Health
Real Estate
Religion
Religion and the Media
Religion and Society
Retail Management
Russian
Russian and Central European Studies
Sculture
Social Welfare
Sociology
South Asian Studies
Spanish
Sport Management
Strategic Management
Visual Culture
Women's and Gender Studies
Writing

College of Visual and Performing Arts
1,903 students
School of Art and Design
Department of Art:
Ceramics
History of Art
Illustration
Jewelry and Metalsmithing
Painting
Printmaking
Sculpture

Dual Enrollment:
School of Education (Art Education)

Department of Design:
Communications Design
Environmental and Interior Design
Fashion Design
Industrial and Interaction Design

Department of Transmedia:
Art Photography
Art Video
Computer Art and Animation
Film
CAMPUS LIFE

By the Numbers

21 21 residence halls
18 18 places to eat, including vegetarian, vegan, kosher, and halal options (dining centers, cafes, and food courts)
300 300 student clubs and organizations
2 2 campus groceries
7 7 fitness facilities

Need a Break from Your Studies?

➤ On-campus ice-skating pavilion and ropes course
➤ Plays and concerts, many of which feature Syracuse University students
➤ Festivals throughout the year, including Apple Fest, Winter Carnival, and Feel the Pulse

Student Clubs and Organizations

A Cappella groups (7)
African Student Union
Architecture Students Organization
Asian Students in America
Caribbean Students Association
Cheon Ji In Syracuse
Cricket
Enactus
Engineers Without Borders
European Student Union
Hong Kong Cultural Organization
Morton Schiff Jazz Ensemble
Orange Bhangra Dance Troupe
Rugby
Soccer
Society of Professional Hispanic Engineers
South Asian Students Association
Student Environmental Action Coalition
Women in Communications
...and 300+ more.

For a complete list, visit studentactivities.syr.edu

For club and intramural teams, visit recreationservices.syr.edu

Orange Bhangra Team
Volunteer through the Shaw Center, Hendricks Chapel, your home college, or one of the many student organizations.

The expansive Life Sciences Complex is more than just laboratories. The atrium is a great place to study with classmates or grab a quick lunch.

Student group Enactus works with Mayan weavers to develop, market, and sell eco-friendly products at the University bookstore. Since 2007, the group has sent the weavers more than $90,000 and funded almost 200 scholarships for Mayan girls.

A puppy snowman greets students as they walk to morning classes. Parking attendant Jackie Snow—a woman with the perfect name—warms hearts with her witty snow sculptures.
Whether you are at the main campus or studying abroad, you’ll learn from internationally recognized professionals (many of them Syracuse University alumni). Recent guests include author Cheryl Strayed, journalist Anderson Cooper, actress Anna Deavere Smith, and environmentalist Bill McKibben.

A. Students welcome former U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

B. Students meet with His Royal Highness Prince Sultan bin Salman Al Saud G ’99, the youngest person to fly on the space shuttle, first member of a royal family in space, and the first Muslim in space.

C. Oliviero Toscani—Italian photographer, best known for designing controversial advertising campaigns for Benetton—speaks to students at Syracuse University’s Center in Florence, Italy.

D. Oprah Winfrey—media mogul, talk show host, and actress—describes her career journey to students at the dedication of the Newhouse Studio & Innovation Center.
SERVICES AND CAREER PREPARATION

Success at Syracuse

Slutzker Center for International Services, a facility in the heart of campus staffed by caring professionals, helps you integrate into the University community and assists you with travel procedures, immigration documents, and living arrangements. international.syr.edu

The English Language Institute provides classes and personal attention as you study reading, grammar, and writing. eli.syr.edu

The Department of Public Safety is a full-service campus law enforcement agency committed to promoting a safe environment, 24-hours a day, year-round. publicsafety.syr.edu

SU Abroad offers learning opportunities in more than 30 countries—many of which include field study, internships, and home stays. All coursework carries University credit, which allows you to complete your degree on schedule. suabroad.syr.edu

You can also begin your education abroad (ideal for European students not ready to venture far from home):

Discovery Programs: Join a small cohort of entering first-year students to begin your collegiate experience at Syracuse University Centers in Florence, Italy, Madrid, Spain, or Strasbourg, France. admissions.syr.edu/discoveryprograms

Gap Year Program: Earn academic credit (transferrable to most U.S. universities) in London or Madrid, while also having time to travel, intern, and volunteer. admissions.syr.edu/gapyear

Success Beyond Syracuse

When you prepare to apply for internships and full-time jobs in the U.S. or abroad, Career Services offers one-on-one assistance, including:

> resume critiques
> practice interviews
> career fairs throughout the year

The office will connect you with Syracuse University alumni who can serve as mentors, helping you to gather information about career paths and the transition from college. careerservices.syr.edu

Syracuse University Career Placement Survey 2014

94% found opportunities in six months

74% employment

3% postgraduate internship

17% graduate school
“Working at MTV has afforded me many learning opportunities and the chance to get to know producers. And because my job requires me to look at other people’s lives, I’ve become more understanding. It’s very rewarding.”

–Brooke Crittendon ’03 associate producer of the award-winning documentary series True Life
The City of Syracuse is a fusion of distinctive neighborhoods, festivals, parks, professional sports, destination shopping, and a thriving art and music scene. You’ll engage with the city in many ways, from volunteering with organizations to interning with businesses.

What is there to do in Syracuse?

Intern: #8 Happiest City for Work in 2012 (Careerbliss, 2012)

Dine: #1 pizza, #1 hamburgers, and #2 coffee (Travel + Leisure college rankings), along with Best Bar-B-Que joint in America—Dinosaur Bar-B-Que (ABC Good Morning America Weekend)

Get Fit: #6 Best Triathlon City in U.S. (Active.com) and Best Running Store in America—Fleet Feet Sports (Competitor Magazine)

Shop: Home to the 6th-largest enclosed shopping center in the country—Destiny USA

Play: Rent a paddle boat at Green Lakes State Park, ski at a nearby mountain, or test your fear of heights at the Cuse Challenge Ropes Course on campus.

Enjoy Life: Ride the ferris wheel at the State Fair, attend a baseball game, or tour Skaneateles (#11 America’s Favorite Town—Travel + Leisure).

Weather in Syracuse: Four distinct seasons
With seven men’s and 11 women’s athletic teams, you’ll have many opportunities to join your classmates and cheer on the Orange. In 2014, the Syracuse University men’s basketball team set the U.S. collegiate on-campus attendance record with 35,446 fans.

For a list of athletic teams, visit cuse.com
Basketball fans fill the Carrier Dome
Syracuse University alumni make their mark in a variety of professions—from actors to zoologists and everything in between.

Waleed Abdalati '86
NASA chief scientist

Joseph Biden L'68
U.S. vice president

Dick Clark '51
Former CEO, Dick Clark Productions

Col. Eileen Collins '78
First female space shuttle commander

Bob Costas '74
Sports announcer, NBC

Dennis Crowley '98
Co-founder, Foursquare

Ernie Davis '62
Football star, first African American Heisman Trophy winner

Taye Diggs '93
Stage, screen, and television actor, How Stella Got Her Groove Back, Rent, Private Practice

Bruce Fowle '60
Founding principal, Fox & Fowle Architects; senior partner, FXFOWLE Architects

Betsey Johnson '64
Fashion designer and breast cancer activist

Rami Khouri '70, G'98
International journalist specializing in Middle Eastern affairs

Ted Koppel '60
Former anchor, ABC News Nightline; managing editor, Discovery Channel; senior news analyst, National Public Radio

Steve Kroft '67
Co-editor and news correspondent, CBS, 60 Minutes

Sol LeWitt '41
Modern artist, key creator of minimalism and conceptual art

Arthur Liu G'66
President & CEO, Multicultural Radio Broadcasting, Inc.

Belva Ann Lockwood 1857, G 1872, H 1909
Women's rights pioneer and first woman to argue a case before the U.S. Supreme Court

Oren Lyons, Jr. '58, H'93
Native American Faithkeeper of the Turtle Clan of the Seneca Nations

Arielle Tepper Madover '94
Theatrical and film producer, recent productions: Monty Python's Spamalot, Frost/Nixon, and Annie

Don McPherson '87
Professional football player, activist, and sportscaster

Jessie Mueller '05
Tony Award-winning actress

Joyce Carol Oates '60,
Author, We Were the Mulvaneys, Faithless: Tales of Transgression, and them

Lou Reed '64
Singer-songwriter and guitarist, The Velvet Underground

Elsa Reichmanis '72, G'75
Professor at the School of Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering of the Georgia Institute of Technology

Chris Renaud '89
Oscar-nominated director of Despicable Me and Despicable Me 2, and executive producer of Minions

Todd Rubin '04
President, The Republic of Tea

Elis Saslow '04
Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter for the Washington Post

His Royal Highness Prince Sultan bin Salman Al Saud G'99
Youngest person to fly on the space shuttle, first member of a royal family in space, and the first Muslim in space

Ian Schrager '68
Hotelier, co-founder and owner of Studio 54

Aaron Sorkin '83
Creator, NBC's The West Wing; playwright and screenwriter, A Few Good Men, The American President, and The Social Network

John Sykes '77
MTV founding executive

John Tsebe '81
First black national librarian in South Africa

Bill Viola '73
Video artist

Vanessa L. Williams '86
National recording artist and actress, Desperate Housewives
Commencement in the Carrier Dome
Applying for Admission
Syracuse University uses the Common Application exclusively. You’ll apply directly to one of the University’s nine undergraduate colleges or to a dual/combined program within two colleges.

Application Deadlines:
> Early Decision November 15
> Regular Decision (first-year students) January 1
> Regular Decision (transfer students) July 1
This is the priority deadline; however applications will continue to be accepted on a space-available basis.
> Spring Admission (first-year or transfer) November 15

Your Application is Evaluated on
> Academic performance, including your senior year accomplishments, participation in advanced coursework, and standardized test scores
> Your personal essay, including your goals, interests, experiences, and values
> Recommendations that convey a sense of your talents, capabilities, accomplishments, and strength of character
> Your audition or portfolio, if you are applying to architecture, art, music, or drama programs. These are an important part of the admissions decision. (Please note that auditions/portfolios are also required if you wish to be considered for these programs as an alternative area of study.)

Admission Information for Students Outside the U.S.:
The TOEFL or IELTS is required of all international (non-U.S. citizen) applicants whose native language is not English, whether applying as a freshman or transfer student. If your first language is English, the TOEFL or IELTS is not required to be considered for admission. The TOEFL or IELTS requirement may be waived in certain situations. The decision to waive the standard requirement is at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

> The SAT/ACT is not required for any student studying outside the U.S. and currently enrolled in a school that does not follow the American system of education, including U.S. citizens living abroad

International (non-U.S. citizen) applicants can be granted conditional admission to Syracuse University if the academic requirements for admission have been met, but there is insufficient English proficiency and/or insufficient financial support documentation. Once the conditions are met, the student will be fully admitted to the University on a space-available basis.

Typical Expenses for 2015-2016 School Year
(Amounts are listed in USD (American dollars))

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Tuition</td>
<td>$41,794</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Housing and Meals (average)</td>
<td>$14,880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miscellaneous Fees</td>
<td>$1,524</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Fees</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>$59,198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other Expenses (average)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Books and Supplies</td>
<td>$1,412</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Personal Expenses</td>
<td>$5,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and Transportation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Health Insurance</td>
<td>$1,890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>$8,302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Cost of Attendance</td>
<td>$67,500</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Financing Your Education
financialaid.syr.edu/whoareyou/internationalstudents

International Students
(Non-U.S. citizens who are not U.S. permanent residents) Undergraduate applicants are not eligible for financial aid from the United States government or any U.S. state government. However, there is another type of financial aid for which you may qualify:

> Merit-based scholarships: Awarded on the basis of exceptional academic and personal achievement. Selection is made by the Office of Admissions and eligibility is based on academic credentials.

You must provide official documentation stating how expenses will be paid while enrolled at Syracuse University if you need to obtain a student visa. Proof of funding in the amount of $67,500 must be submitted.

U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents
U.S. citizens and permanent residents, including those living outside the U.S., are eligible to apply for all forms of financial aid. To apply for federal financial aid, file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To also apply for a Syracuse University Grant, file the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE. It is important to submit these forms on time, as awards are made on a funds-available basis. Visit financialaid.syr.edu for deadline information.

Apply today at admissions.syr.edu.
Nearby Major Cities Distance Time by Car

- Albany 219km 2.5 hours
- Baltimore 534km 5.5 hours
- Boston 481km 5.0 hours
- Cleveland 531km 5.5 hours
- Montreal 399km 4.5 hours
- New York City 450km 4.5 hours
- Philadelphia 410km 4.5 hours
- Toronto 399km 4.5 hours
- Washington, D.C. 563km 6.5 hours

* Asterisks indicate the 130+ countries that current Syracuse University students call home.